HALLOWE'EN PARTY:

The Ladies of the Presbyterian church gave a hallowe'en entertainment on last Thursday at the residence of Mrs. Tennie Dunn. The house was profusely decorated in the hallowe'en fancies. On the porches were grinning and frowning pumpkins and on the window draperies were tiny paper ones with gold and black festooning. The stairway was beautifully decorated leading to the floor above, where a host of wierd pictures greeted one and where witches told fortunes at a lively rate. In the dining room the table was covered with lace over yellow and streamers reaching from the chandelier to the four corners and had a jack-o'-lantern for its center piece.
A salad course with individual pumpkin pies, was served. Some fifty guests attended.

On Thursday, October 31 Mr. Jno.

interesting is the marriage of this young couple the groom being one the town's rising and popular attorneys, his bride comes from one of the best families in Maury County and is a young lady of beauty and rare accomplishments. Mr. and Mrs. Crews are at home with the grooms parents Mr. and Mrs. — Crews on Gaines street. We extend hearty congratulations.

AT HOME:

About fifty ladies of the M. E.
Church South enjoyed the hospitality of Mesdames O L Chambers and D T Gould last Wednesday, when the Gould home was opened complimentary to Mesdames Jackson and Woodward.
Mrs. W. C. Parkes assisted in receiving.
The lower floor was decorated throughout with ferns and flowers. Miss Christine Schade sang "Memories" and was in splendid voice. A most interesting paper, on the work of the Guild was read by Mrs. H. B. Parkes and many were surprised to learn that over seventeen hundred dollars had been raised since its organization in July 1910. An original contest on "What you know about your church" furnished much amusement and was equally instructive. Mrs. Clifford Reese won the prize, a dainty booklet. Mrs. Mc-Clamroch won second honors. Later a salad course was served in the dining room, each guest as served being tagged with a geranium leaf tied with a tiny white bow. The affair, though informal was enjoyed thoroughly.
